

Specular Silver Coated Reflectors for Diode Pumped Lasers

Specular reflectors for diode pumped lasers consist of Fused Silica or sapphire tube, the external surface of which is covered with silver (high reflection Ag) coating with protected layers. Several areas of this reflector are open as a window for diode pumping. We produce this kind of reflectors with window sizes and configuration in accordance with the customer's requirements.

