GET IN TOUCH

LUMINOUS ALGORITHMS

Our mission is to develop solutions for automated optical engineering, that means computer software which is capable to generate freeform geometries without iterative manual interaction of an engineer.

Freeform optical surfaces greatly improve designs and are applied in illumination optics and beam shaping applications.

In addition cost, quality and time to market of your project can be greatly improved over conventional approaches.

To get in touch please contact us through our website:

luminous-algo.com